Hurricane Preparedness Seminar Kicks Off Hurricane Season

May 25, 2012—Hurricane season officially starts on June 1st, and on Tuesday, June 5th, the City of Deltona, DM White Insurance, and the office of Congressman John Mica will present the 2012 Hurricane Preparedness Seminar. The Seminar takes place in the Commission Chambers, and will begin at 5:00pm with presentations starting at 5:30pm through 7:00pm.

Central Florida News 13's Chief Meteorologist Jeff Day, will act as the emcee for the Seminar. And the list of guest speakers includes representatives from Congressman Mica's office, FEMA and the State of Florida Emergency offices, and the City of Deltona's Emergency Operation Center. Additionally, there will be local businesses that can provide information on preparing your home for impending storms, and how to recover your property losses afterwards.

The City is also planning to rebroadcast the Hurricane Seminar on DeltonaTV/Ch. 199, and that schedule will be posted at www.deltonafl.gov. For more information, contact DM White Insurance, at (386)532-1442.
